ABOUT THE EVENT

Now employing over 61,000 people in the UK, the last few years have seen fintech grow from its disruptive roots into a £6.6bn industry. From the convergence of two of Manchester's largest industries – financial services and digital technology – the city boasts a growing cluster of fintech businesses.

These range from long-standing companies supporting financial services to much smaller startups that are developing innovative solutions. Join pro-manchester and our expert panels for lunch as we discuss what Manchester has to offer Fintech businesses.
