What our clients say

We've been working with JRSfinancial for years at this point and I couldn't imagine running the business without them.

I love running the company, but the numbers aren't my favourite part. Having someone looking into them for me not only saves the company money but means I can sleep at night.

Jason is beyond knowledge and doesn't waste time, I'm really glad to have him on my side and couldn't imagine the last couple of years without him.

I have to say that Jason was more than a wing man and capable FD. He understands strategy and business needs (MIS etc).

The bit that genuinely impressed me was restructuring the finance function to include greatly improved reporting, but THEN to kick on and become a valued member of "the senior team" scoping out the wider business.

I can not recommend highly enough. A really good and capable guy to have onboard.

What our clients say

Jason has been absolutely outstanding for NORI HR. Even before formally engaging his services he had a clear idea of what we needed, and carry out initial investigations so that he could properly cost out his services for us for the project.

The work he has undertaken has given us such clarity over our finances, and he formulated multiple forecasts based on various parameters which are a huge relief for us as a business.

I would fully recommend Jason's services.
